

Transportation Health & Safety
Association of Ontario

16 Keys to Health & Safety Success

1. Demonstrate top management commitment and leadership	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. Excel at health and safety communication	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. Conduct effective audits and inspections	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. Establish and act on trends	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. Realize the business case for Health and Safety	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. Conduct thorough injury illness and near miss investigations.	<input type="checkbox"/>
7. Encourage employee participation	<input type="checkbox"/>
8. Engage in training	<input type="checkbox"/>
9. Encourage H and S on and off the job	<input type="checkbox"/>
10. Involve contractors and subcontractors	<input type="checkbox"/>
11. Perform Job Safety Analysis and ergo assessments	<input type="checkbox"/>
12. Handle discipline effectively	<input type="checkbox"/>
13. Offer recognition for safety efforts	<input type="checkbox"/>
14. Use performance based safety systems	<input type="checkbox"/>
15. Go above and beyond	<input type="checkbox"/>
16. Employ winning philosophies	<input type="checkbox"/>