

Return to Work Documents and Information

There are a number of online resources available in regards to return to work. The links to these have been provided below for your use in establishing a comprehensive return to work program.

Duties and Responsibilities

Employer Responsibilities

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/public/EmployersESRWEmployers>

Worker Responsibilities

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/public/EmployersESRWWorkers>

WSIB Responsibilities

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/public/EmployersESRWWSIB>

Penalties for non compliance

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/public/EmployersESRWReturntoWork>

WSIB Forms

All WSIB forms can be accessed from this link and there is an option to complete them online

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/public/FormsOverview>

Functional Abilities Form

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/public/ResourcesFunctionalAbilitiesForm>

Centre of Research Expertise in Improved Disability Outcomes

This research centre is based at the University Health Network in Toronto. Their focus is to develop and test interventions to return workers with musculoskeletal pain to safe and sustainable work shortly after their injury by identifying those at risk and developing early interventions that prevent chronic pain and disability.

This centre was opened in 2007 and will look to communicate the results of research to improve the outcomes of return to work.

WSIB Return to Work information

WSIB guide – what to do when an employee gets injured

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/public/EmployersIImmediately>

Reporting to the WSIB

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/Public/EmployersIshouldreport>

How to Report to the WSIB

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/Public/EmployersIIHowtoreport>

Other resources available

National Institute for Disability Management and Research

<http://www.nidmar.ca/index.asp>

Office of the Employer Advisor

<http://www.employeradviser.ca/html/aboutus.html>

Employer Advisor employer tools: tools to assist employers with return to work.

<http://www.employeradviser.ca/html/tools.html>

Further resources - WSIB

<http://www.wsib.on.ca/wsib/wsibsite.nsf/public/Reference>